CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds, 5s.; and so on in proportion.
- THIRD.—In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.
- FOURTH.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required ; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.
- FIFTH.—The lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the buyer's expense and risk, within Two days from the sale ; GLENDINING & Co., Ltd., not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any default or defect in, any lot, and making no warranty whatever.
- SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.
- SEVENTH.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.
- EIGHTH.—If any owner has placed a reserve on any lot, the auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to publish the fact and price at which it is reserved.

14 10 0 613 Four bars—1st June 1794, Copenhagen 1801, Nile, Boat Service, 4th December, 1811 (Peter White), very fine and very rare 1

* * Peter White was born 1st Aug. 1785, and served as boatswain's servant on board the "Latona" in Lord Howe's action, 1st June, 1794; was Midshipman of the Defence at Copenhagen 1801; and, at the Battle of the Nile; was transferred as Master's Mate to H.M.S. "Sultan," 15 Dec. 1807 and whilst serving in that ship he commanded a boat in an attack upon three French vessels, of which two were boarded and captured. For this service, 4th Dec. 1811, he was ordered by Lord Exmouth to act as Lieutenant. For further services, see O'Byrne, page 1,282. (See illustration).

25 0 0 614 Four bars—Trafalgar, Martinique, Superieure 10th Feby. 1809, Guadeloupe (B. George S. Day), a unique medal in very fine state. (See illustration) 1

Bartholomew George Smith Day entered the Navy, 27 Nov. 1804, as Fst.-cl. Vol., on board the Amsterdam frigate, Capt. Wm. Ferris, employed in the West Indies; and, on next joining the "Revenge 74," Capt. Robt. Moorsom, took part, as Midshipman, in the battle of Trafalgar, 21 Oct. 1805. Until Nov. 1808, he afterwards became attached in succession, on the Channel and Halifax stations, to the "Medusa 32," Capt. Hon. Duncombe Pleydell Bouverie, "Leopard 50," flag-ship of the Hon. Geo. Cranfield Berkeley, and "Chibucto" and "Bream" schooners, both commanded by Lieut. Geo. Gover Miall. Being then appointed Acting-Master of the "Supérieure" sloop, Capt. Wm. Ferrie, Humphrey Fleming Senhouse, Henry Conyngham Coxen, and Robt. Russell, he assisted, in company with the "Horatio" and "Latona," at the capture, on 10 Feb. 1809, of the French 40-gun frigate "La Junon," after a contest in which the "Supérieure" figured very conspicuously; and, in the same and the following year, he was also present at the reduction of the islands of Martinique, Guadeloupe, and St. Martin. Between Oct. 1810 and his promotion to the rank of Lieutenant,—which took place 11 Feb. 1815, three years after he had passed his examination,—Mr. Day appears to have been next employed—in the "Royal Sovereign" yacht, in the river Thames—the "Dominica" sloop, Capt. Robt. Hockings, and "Queen 74," flag-ship of Sir Fras. Laforey, both on the West India station—and the "Cyrus 20," Capt. Wm. Fairbrother Carroll, off the coast of France. From April to Sept. 1815, he afterwards served in the "Slaney 20," Capt. Geo. Rose Sartorius; but since the latter date he has not been afloat.

Lieut. Day, when in the "Bream," in Chesapeake Bay, had the good fortune to suppress a mutiny which had broken out on board that vessel. (See illustration).

Pearse (Commander, 1825, F-P., 23; H-P., 31). John Pearse was born 17 May, 1780.

This officer entered the Navy, at the commencement of 1793, on board the "Myrmidon," slop-ship at Plymouth, Lieut.-Commander John Burrows; and, between June, 1794, and the date of his promotion to the rank of Lieutenant 29 Dec. 1800, was employed as Midshipman in the "Gibraltar 80," Capt. John Pakenham, "Bombay Castle 74," Capts. Jas. Macnamara, Wm. Shield, and Thos. Sotheby, "Culloden 74," Capt. Sir Thos. Troubridge, "Princess Royal 98," Capt. Thos. Macnamara Russell, and "Ville de Paris 110," flag-ship of Earl St. Vincent. He officiated for some time, too, as Acting-Lieutenant of the "Neptune" and "Téméraire 98's." In the "Gibraltar" he fought in Hotham's action 13 July, 1795; in the "Bombay Castle," in which ship he was wrecked in Dec. 1796, he witnessed the capture, in Tunis Bay, of the "Nemesis" of 28, the "Sardine" of 22, and a polacre of 20 guns, as likewise the evacuation of the island of Corsica; and in the "Culloden" he was present in the action off Cape St. Vincent, at the bombardment of Cadiz, in the expedition against Teneriffe, and at the battle of the Nile. He served also on shore at the sieges of Naples and Capua, at the capture of Civita Vecchia and Rome, and at the bombardment, in 1799, of Alexandria. With the colours taken at Capua Mr. Pearse was sent by Lord Nelson to the Queen of Naples, by whom he was presented, in return, with a diamond ring.

618 Two bars—Copenhagen 1801, St. Domingo (Thomas Mansell, Midshipman), fine and scarce 1

Thomas Mansel entered the Navy in 1789, as Fst.-cl. Vol., on board the "Hyæna 24," Capts. Hon. Courtenay Boyle and David Lloyd, stationed at first in the North Sea and afterwards in the Mediterranean. Removing as Midshipman, in 1800, to the "Elephant 74," Capts. Thos. Foley and Geo. Dundas, he served in that ship under Lord Nelson at the battle of Copenhagen, 2 April, 1801, and on proceeding to the West Indies took part in the operations of 1803 against the French at St. Domingo.
